

CURRICULUM VITAE OF TAN HUI LING

Tan Hui Ling (Partner)

Tan Hui Ling graduated in 2006 from the University of London (External) and thereafter proceeded to complete her LL.M in Newcastle University. She was admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in November 2009. After completing the Certificate of Legal Practice, she commenced pupillage at a large law firm in Malaysia and continued her practice focusing solely on conveyancing practice before co-founding the Law Office of Anil & Tan.

With over 11 years of experience in conveyancing practice, her practice area covers residential, commercial and industrial properties, from acquisitions to sale through courts and land offices, project management, project development, leasing and financing of real estate.

She also constantly provides legal advice and reviews various legal documentations for consumer and commercial banking related matters, for both conventional and Islamic financing for various financial institutions in Malaysia including Public Bank Berhad, Malayan Banking Berhad, CIMB Bank Berhad and Affin Bank Berhad.

During the course of her legal career, Hui Ling has also been involved in providing advice for a wide range of property related transactions including will drafting, probate, trusts and estate matters.

Her ability to converse in Mandarin, Cantonese, English and Bahasa Malaysia is a further asset to the firm.
